

WSSI Training

WSSI – Why it's so important

- It gives you the ability to track all your stock, sales, markdown, warehouse stock, cover in one place
- It can be broken down in as many levels as you can cope with, all relaying the same information
- Its an important tool for your Financial team to measure performance, review forward performance, understand peaks and troths of stock flow, gives your warehouse to review its capacity amongst so many things
- It gives you a tool to communicate with your team and senior management about how you are managing sales and stock
- It's a fantastic training tool
